

MINI MORE

POS

We aim to provide the best service in the field of sales Miscellaneous and flexible inventory management

Electronic Invoice Software

Zakat & Income Authority Electronic Invoice Software is one of the leading software solutions in the field of account management and business that meets the requirements of Zakat & Income Authority to issue electronic invoices easily. You can follow your sales, accounts, customers and stores accurately and customized according to your area of business.

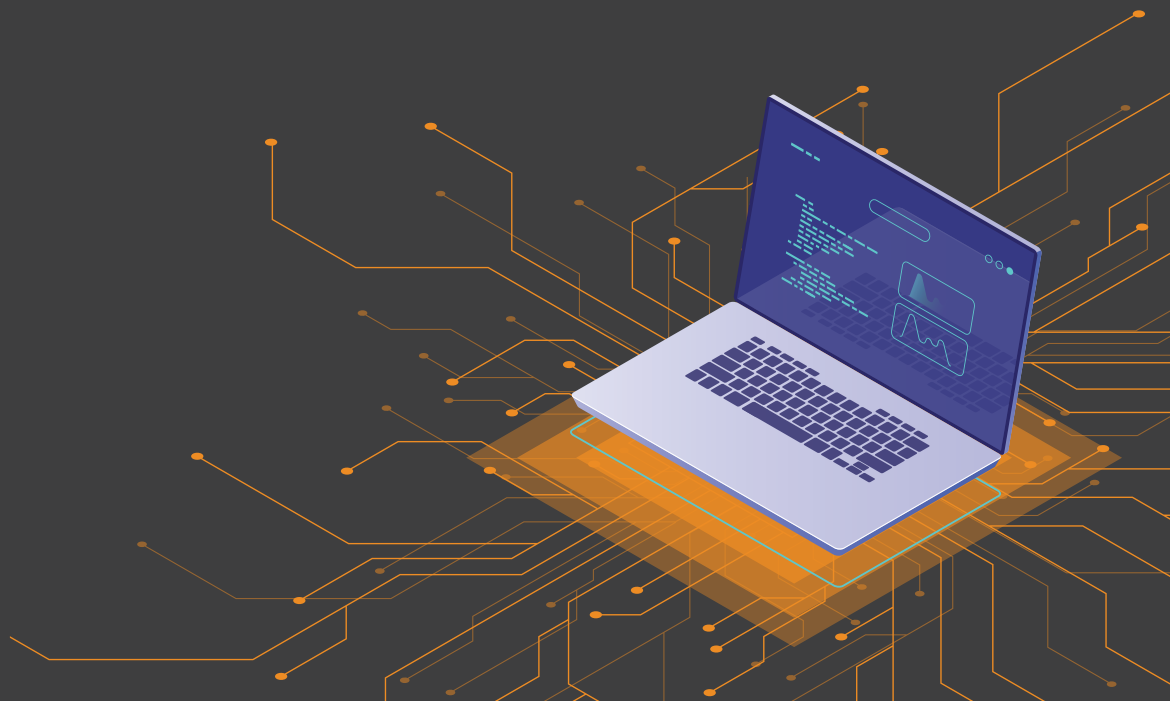

The system is divided into a number of sections the most important of which are:

1. Set up the facility

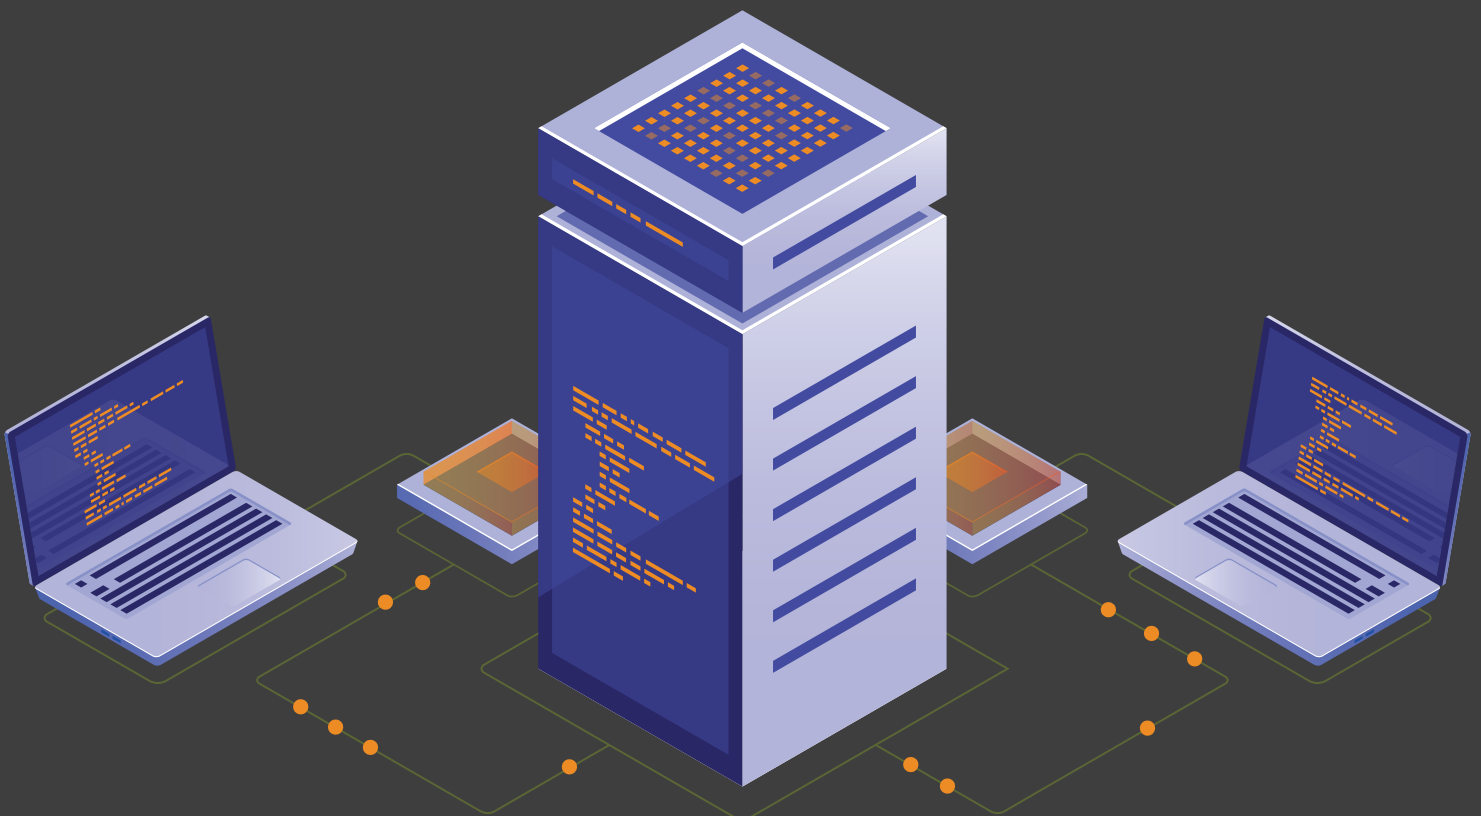

- The system supports multiple installations where you can define several establishments according to each establishment's activity.
- The system supports multiple branches where you can define your branches Branch activities and identification of each facility's ware houses And the inventory of each warehouse.
- Add and flexibly archive the establishment's documents and documents.

Add users of the system according to Saliha system by group
The user can access available options Only current user group with user connectivity At his warehouse.

2. Warehouse Management

- Define the categories of warehouse items with the possibility of identifying an image for each category.
- Add items according to the item unit system so that you can define more than one sale unit for each item at a different sale and purchase price.
- Definition of service-type items for which sales invoices can be issued without affecting inventory.
- Flexible barcode design for each item with the possibility of using global barcodes for the item.

3. Inventory Management

- Determination of opening balances of inventory of warehouses for start-up Using the system.
- Transfer of goods between warehouses with transfer report that have been done.
- Category card report showing the movement of material within the system from operations Buy, transfer, sell and retreat sales.
- A specific warehouse inventory report by searching the item barcode or By name.
- Warehouse inventory management and inventory correction with Inventory reports.
- Managing the process of damaging the goods from a specific warehouse inventory.
- Ability to order goods through the warehouse and are reviewed And provide them from a warehouse or several warehouses by the administration.

4. Procurement

- Identification of suppliers with your facility in all their data required for procurement and return of goods to suppliers.
- Receipt of purchase invoice from supplier to specific warehouse.
- Return of miscellaneous items from several purchase invoices by one return order Or an invoice of all kinds.

5. Sales Management

- Managing Your Business Sales Whether It's Cash Bills Or futures through an easy interface for users of the system.
- The system books invoiced items until the bill is delivered Its material to the customer so that the reserved material can be disposed of.
- Printing an electronic invoice according to the Zakat and Income Authority standards.
- Sales of inventory and other service items associated with warehouse inventory.
- Payment of invoices through multiple payment methods for one invoice (cash - network - mada - visa - various electronic financial portfolios).
- You can send your e-bill to the customer via mail e-mail or text message without the need to print it.
- Comprehensive Sales Report for Specific Invoice Type Detailing The invoice and its reimbursements allow you to search in a flexible manner.
- Managing a client's return process with a comprehensive report Return to a specific warehouse between two periods.
- REPORT ON THE MOVEMENT INDEX OF A SPECIFIC CATEGORY AND HIGHER SELLING ITEMS ON Warehouse level.
- All system reports can be printed directly from inside the page Required or save report on PDF format.

6. Substantive and technical features of the system

- Supports Arabic and English.
- Providing the possibility of transferring key data from other systems as Excel files and imported within the system.
- The system can be used through cloud service Or install it on a device like a desktop computer without the need to connect Internet.
- Design the system in a coherent manner so that all sizes are appropriate Displays so that they can be used from computer devices and mobile phones.
- System supports touch screens used at point of sale Provides smooth invoice creation and printing.
- Built according to the latest web technology supported by a company Microsoft provides speed with system response and implementation Calls.

